

deaf people should be able to use any equipment that is available to them, just as it is available for hearing people. why should any one company be able to dictate which service we want to go through. some interpreters are better qualified in other companies, i want that choice.